Verse 1

Although death devastates
Leaves clamour in its wake
And the heaviness is more than hearts can hold

There is a Counsellor to seek Whose ragged holes in hands and feet
Bear witness to a love that mends the soul

Chorus

Our Prince of Peace
Our steadfast hand
You are the oil and balm of Gilead
You soothe our aching bones
and our wretched souls
Our Prince of Peace
The Son of Man

Verse 2

Although storms take their toll
Leave unrest in hollow hulls
And it feels we are adrift in endlessness

There is a servant on a cross
Losing more than we have lost
Who can lavish everlasting peace and rest

Chorus

Our Prince of Peace
Our steadfast hand
You are the oil and balm of Gilead

Verse 3

When the sun has set its last
All the years have left their mark
All my failures and triumphs have turned to nought

There is a Father who outlasts
Who has turned His face to us
Who will gather all the saints His love has bought

Chorus

Our Prince of Peace
Our steadfast hand
You are the oil and balm of Gilead
You soothe our aching bones
And our wretched souls
Our Prince of Peace
The Son of Man
