CityLight

G D/F#
Although death devastates
Em C2
Leaves clamour in its wake

And the heaviness is more than hearts can hold

Our Prince of peace

The Son of man
G D/F#
Although storms take their toll

Leave unrest in hollow hulls

And it feels we are adrift in endlessness

There is a servant on a cross

Losing more than we have lost

Who can lavish everlasting peace and rest

Our steadfast hand

Our servant Lord

G D/F#
When the sun has set its last

All the years have left their mark

All my failures and triumphs have turned to nought

There is a Father who outlasts

Who has turned His face to us

Who will gather all the saints His love has bought

Our steadfast hand
